Different forms of Youthcoaching

- Territorial Youthcoaches = JOCO's (4)
- Jobtrial= JOJO : a project from the Ministry of Education
  - contract for 1 or 2 years + training to get a certificate
  - School intern: +/- 60 in 50 schools
    - Prevention = JOJO's
    - Maintenance= JOJO's
  - School extern: 10 in Antwerp working at AOB – Safety - Mobility
    - Traffic safety coaches = VeVe's en School Spotters
- Peercoaching: schoolstudents who become peers

YOUTH Coaches : JOCO's (4)

- Territorial in 15 secondary schools: 2 schools/JOCO
- Demand driven: all for all the students in secondary schools in Antwerp living in their work area
- Working 4/5 and studying 1/5 in social subjects

JOBTRIAL SCHOOL INTERN

- Jobtrial: contract for 1 or 2 years + training to get a certificate
- Young people from 18 to 26 years, with low schooling grade (no certificate)

Goal:

- to get a first good working experience while helping other young people
- To get a training so that they get a certificate at the end of their contract

JOBTRIAL SCHOOL EXTERN

- SCHOOL SPOTTERS: Secondary Schools
  - Preventive, steward-role around sites of Secondary schools during peek hours
  - Monitoring student behaviour between school and public transport
  - Traffic Education : the blind spot around trucks
- VEVE' s: Primary Schools
  - Assistant in traffic education: blind spot, training bikers agility
  - Recording complaints about unsafe traffic situations around the schools , making it visible to the necessary partners

WIN-WIN

- For the schools
  - Early detection of students likely to drop out
  - Better and faster contact with parents
  - Extra youth coaching support for the school
  - An easier way into neighbourhood network and youth participation
- For the jojo in jobtrial:
  - A growth in social skills and job training
  - The possibility to get a certificate
  - A positive working experience as a tool for getting better work possibilities in a regular work setting

COACHING in JOBTRIAL

- MOST IMPORTANT ASSET: BELIEVE !
  - You must believe in them twice as hard
  - Show them their possibilities, not their failures
  - Feed their talents and put their successes in the Flashlight
- GO FOR the GREATEST possible GROWTH
  - Put your standards high
  - Empower the individual and the team
- BE PREPARED TO CATCH THEM WHEN THEY FALL
  - Be a good listener, be there and know your partners in Welfare-Youthwork
